

Janesville Daily Gazette.

VOLUME 9.

JANESVILLE, WIS., MONDAY, FEB. 27, 1865.

NUMBER 8.

THE WEEKLY GAZETTE is now the largest paper printed in the State, and having the matter published in the Daily to select from, we change comparisons with any newspaper in Wisconsin. In correct political and reliable market reports, in giving the latest news from all sources, in the literary matter and in all information relating to this city and country, it is worthy of public patronage and support.

For local matter, city notices, railroad directory, arrival and departure of mails, and market reports, see fourth page.

The News.

The dispatches are silent as to the whereabouts of the army under General Sherman. Although we are assured by the Richmond papers that he is marching to his doom.

Rebel deserters continue to flock into Grant's lines in large numbers, and among them many South Carolinians. General Lee is reported to have gone South, and the evacuation of Richmond within a few days is again predicted. Lee says the arming of the slaves has now become a necessity.

It will be seen that citizens of New York propose to celebrate the capture of the chief cities of the South in a proper manner on the 4th day of March. Gold closed at 109 1/2.

It is a matter of public duty which our Madison neighbors owe to themselves as well as to the balance of the State, that they take immediate steps to increase their hotel accommodations. Their present facilities in this respect, are wholly inadequate to meet the wants of the large number of persons daily called thither upon military and other business. A first class public house would benefit the place and be a great comfort to the traveling public.

Now and then.—When four years ago Fort Sumter was compelled to succumb to the South Carolina insurgents, Governor Pickens—who once boasted that he "was born insensible to fear"—delivered a congratulatory address to the Charlestonians, in which he said:

"We have humbled the flag of the United States, and as long as I have the honor to preside as your Chief Magistrate, so help me God there is no power on this earth that shall lower from that fortress those flags, unless they be lowered and trailed in a sea of blood."

The Fifty-second Regiment has been organized as follows:

Colonel—Lieut. Wm. C. Webb, of Watons.

Lt. Colonel—Capt. Hiram J. Lewis, of Neenah.

Major—Wm. A. Collins, of Milwaukee.

Adjutant—Norman A. Keeler, of Delevan.

Quartermaster—Charles C. Graham, of Whitewater.

Surgeon—Lucius J. Dixon.

Assistant Surgeon—O. P. B. Wright.

The negroes who followed Gen. Sherman in his march through Georgia and South Carolina, are being organized into regiments at Hilton Head. It is estimated that one of the effects of Sherman's movement will be to add 25,000 to 30,000 loyal blacks to our army.

One House of the Pennsylvania Legislature has passed a bill giving up the bed of the Allegheny river, in the oil regions, to oil speculators, who expect to find oil in great abundance, by boring for it in the bed of the river. The grant is estimated to be worth millions.

The Richmond Whig on the evacuation of Charleston says: Sherman, by his bold advance, has thus accomplished, without bloodshed, what Dupont, Dahlgren, Gilmore & Co. have vainly attempted, though aided by the combined naval forces of Yankeeedom.

The Tribune's Washington special says it is estimated that Charleston and Fort Anderson, together with the certain capture of Mobile, will liberate 25,000 men from the navy who can be organized into a corps for offensive operations on land.

One man has received his desert. Captain John S. Beall, one of the leaders in the piratical raid on Lake Erie, was executed at Governor's Island, in New York harbor, Friday. Burley, another of the gang, is soon to be tried in Ohio.

Tax Milwaukee News respectfully asks the Janesville Gazette to be a little more decent, when speaking about George B. McClellan and Horatio Seymour. But it does not point out how a poor body it is to be decent upon an indecent subject.

The New York Tribune says it learns from a trustworthy source that the rebel Senator Foote said, before leaving for Europe, that the rebel Congressmen, in a secret session for three months past, regarded the cause as hopeless.

Two blockade-running vessels, loaded with cotton, have recently been captured by our blockade runners on the Texas coast; another vessel was run ashore and disabled, and another driven back to Galveston.

Or age hundred prisoners who were ordered from Alton prison, on Monday, for exchange, about one-half refused to go, preferring to remain prisoners going in to the rebel army again.

A Census of the population of St. Louis has just been taken, by order of the common council of that city. The official enumeration of inhabitants presents a total of 165,446.

Wanted for chemical purposes—a lady dissolved in tears.

Our Member of Assembly.

Mr. Cassoday's friends throughout the county, will be glad to learn that he is a recognized leader among the Union members of the present legislature. One of the editors of the Milwaukee Sentinel was present and heard the debate in the Assembly upon the constitutional amendment. He writes home as follows:

"Cassoday, of Rock, (Republican) Chairman of the Railroad Committee, and one of the leaders of the Republican side, (if there are any leaders) were all perfectly competent to take care of themselves, followed in the most elaborate speech on the question yet made. He devoted himself, to some extent, to prove very restricted powers on the part of the States and very wide sovereignty on the part of the general government, and attacked great many opinions which a very few years ago would have found little favor with any party in the country. What relation this question of State sovereignty has to the proposition involved, your correspondent cannot perceive. The mode of amending the constitution is very clearly pointed out, and whether the States be sovereign or sovereigns, it does not alter their powers on this point. Mr. Cassoday is one of the best speakers on the floor, and many parts of his speech were eloquent, and elicited the closest attention as well as hearty applause of his hearers. His proposition in which he referred to a recent discovery at Rome of a bronze statue of Hercules in his contest with the Hydra, and related the fable of that fight, making an application of it to the present condition of our country, was very fine. Mr. C. will make a higher mark in the history of the State."

John Rock and Tony Knapp.

(Washington Correspondence) Republican Democrat. They tell a good story here among Western people, wherein a negro lawyer and a Copperhead Congressman figure. The lawyer is John S. Rock, of Boston, and the Congressman is Anthony L. Knapp, of Illinois. It appears that some weeks ago Mr. Knapp accosted another Illinois Congressman, Mr. B. C. Cook, of Ottawa, with "I believe Cook, you are the only man here who knows of his own knowledge, that I'm a member of the Supreme Court of our State; and I want you to present me, some morning, for admission to the bar of the Supreme Court of the United States." Certainly, Knapp, replied Cook, who by the way, is a good Republican. Happening to meet on the first morning of this month, Knapp says, "Well, Cook, you tend to that little matter of mine this morning?" "O yes, come on," so they went into the chamber of the Supreme Court, and sat in the bar waiting, the assembling of the Court. Directly, also, followed them Charles Sumner and John S. Rock—taking seats quietly, that needless attention be not drawn to the presence of this negro. Soon came in the honorable, the Supreme Court of the United States, who, bowing in a fash to the few spectators, took their usual seats. Mr. Cook and Mr. Knapp rose, and the former was on the point of presenting the latter, when Charles Sumner, on another voice was heard. "Mr. Knapp, please the honorable Court, I present John S. Rock, of Boston, for admission to the bar of this Court." "Let him be sworn," simply said Mr. Chase; and, all negro as he was, he advanced to be sworn. But Cook loves a joke—here was his chance. While this was going on, the Democratic Congressman of Copperhead tendencies stood staring in amazement. Just as the negro was stepping to be sworn, Cook caught Knapp by the arm with "Now, Knapp, I'll be your turn immediately after this gentleman," with special emphasis on the last word. "No, I'll be—d—d if I will," exclaimed Knapp as he rushed for the door. Tony Knapp, Congressman from Illinois, hasn't yet been admitted to the bar of the Supreme Court of the United States.

STEWART, THE MERCHANT MILLIONAIRE.

He has many partners, but they are only partners in profits. He is the sole master of all that is bought and sold. He knows every article that comes in or goes out of the store. No bundle leaves without a check. He selected a shawl for his wife one day, and neglecting to check it, it could not leave the building. No merchant in New York works so many hours, or gives such undivided attention to his business. His rooms are in his down-town store. He comes down early, takes his dinner about five o'clock, returns and remains at his work till late at night. He finds his pleasure in business. He is as efficient to approach as the Grand Lama. Go to the store, and you will be met at the door by a courteous gentleman, an efficient merchant who kept his own establishment. To your question if Mr. Stewart is in a response comes, "What is your business?" "I want to see Mr. Stewart." "You can't see him unless you know your business. I must know what you want, sir." It is private you say. "Mr. Stewart has no private business." If your statement is satisfactory, you are allowed to pass up stairs. Here you are met by another bland but portly gentleman, once a judge of one of our courts, now the confidential business agent and companion of Mr. Stewart, to whom he devotes all his time. He subjects you to a series of cross questions as vigorous as if you were on a stand at court. He keeps you from Stewart if he can. If he can't, when your turn comes he sends you into a little box, ten by twenty, where sits the secret of the New York merchants. He receives you with a blank countenance and a cold eye. His voice is suppressed, his face impassive, and his air indifferent. You hurry through your business and need a strong temptation to induce you to run the gauntlet again.

THE JANESVILLE GAZETTE.—We have inadvertently neglected, until this time, to call attention to the prospectus of the Janesville Gazette. Under the direction of Messrs. Thompson & Roberts the Gazette, has taken a leading position among the newspapers of Wisconsin. It is edited with marked ability and is eminently sound on the leading political issues of the day. Mr. Thompson has had much experience in State matters, and from his thorough acquaintance with public men and intimate knowledge of the wants of the masses, he is able to make a first-class paper. It is fully deserving of the excellent patronage which it merits. Neglect for it.

At a meeting of New York merchants, it was voted to suspend all business on the 4th of March next, and to celebrate in a befitting manner the recent Union victories.

FROM GRANT'S ARMY.

New York, Feb. 27.—The Herald's James river correspondent states that Gen. Lee has gone southward to command the operations of opposing Sherman, leaving Gen. Joe Johnston in command at Richmond and Petersburg. A large part of the rebel army around Richmond had on Saturday last been under marching orders for several days and a considerable number of rebel troops is believed to have been detached to oppose Sherman.

Reports of Lee's departure to the southward, as a deserter, now add that notice has been given by him to the people of the former place to have their tobacco and other stores removed within four days. They say that nearly all the artillery has been taken from the Petersburg batteries, only sufficient being left to keep up appearances.

Heavy artillery practice continuing for several hours, was indulged in on Thursday by the enemy in front of Petersburg. The casualties, however, were few and the firing appears to have had no result of importance.

Of the stream of rebel deserters pouring into our lines, averaging at least 100 daily, a large proportion now bring their arms and equipments, and the cavalry men bring in their horses. Since the fall of Charleston, South Carolina troops in large numbers have joined the deserting throng.

The Richmond Sentinel of last Friday, had a report that Gen. Grant was again massing on the Virginia road.

Gen. Sigel and Gen. Hughes en route from Washington to Richmond, arrived at City Point on Saturday last.

New York, Feb. 26.—A letter to the Herald from the 6th Army Corps dated the 23d, says deserters state that several brigades of Hill's Corps have gone South to reinforce Beauregard, and the whole of Lee's army is under marching orders.

Another letter dated the 24th says it is known that a considerable portion of Lee's army yesterday was ordered to make four days' cooked rations, and to prepare to carry considerable ammunition on their persons. More will probably be ascertained to-day.

Additional precautions are being taken at City Point and other places for the proper reception of rebel rans, which are expected soon to make another attempt at a raid down James river.

FROM NEW YORK.

New York, Feb. 25.—At an adjourned meeting of the committee for celebrating the Union victories, held at 10 o'clock this morning, Moses Taylor in the chair, the following gentlemen were appointed a committee on resolutions: Charles P. Daley, George O'Byrne, Hamilton Fish, Henry Hill, Edward Pierpont, W. M. Evans, Wm. F. Shepard and Prosser M. Wetmore.

The committee reported the following resolutions which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the solemn pledges given to the Government by the people of the city of New York, assembled in Union square on the 30th of April, 1861, have been redeemed with fidelity and honor, and that after four years of bloody conflict, where the majesty of the laws has been vindicated and the national power restored to the soil of every state, it is fitting and just that upon the same spot the tidings of victory should be mingled with the acclamations of a grateful people.

Resolved.—That since the cities of New Orleans, Memphis, Vicksburg, Nashville, Savannah, Columbia, Charleston and Wilmington, freed from the terrors of insurgent armies, have again been received under the protecting care of the government, it is our duty to teach them by example and acts of kindness, that it is safer and wiser to obey the law than to spurn its control.

Resolved, That the people of the city of New York do hereby invite the co-operation of every loyal municipality in the celebration of the Union arms, on Saturday, the 4th of March ensuing, at midday, by the sound of cannon the ringing of bells, and the uprising of the voice of the people the national heart may be made glad and gratitude and honor be rendered to the gallant men who have preserved the life of the Union.

New York, Feb. 26.—The committee of arrangements will be in constant session during the week, at the Astor House. All communications relating to military, police, fire, or other matters, or telegraphic dispatches from other cities, and other matters relating to active details of the celebration may be addressed to Col. Frank B. Howe, Secretary of the Committee.

FROM WILMINGTON.

New York, Feb. 25.—The Herald's Wilmington correspondent says a large number of Union prisoners were released by the capture of the place. They were confined in camp Lamb about a mile from the city. Their treatment was of a brutal character and for three days preceding the liberation they had not received a mouthful of food. The citizens had endeavored to feed them but the food was taken away by the officers in charge. They presented a most sickening spectacle, many of them having been rendered idiotic and had forgotten their own names.

THE REBEL PIRES.

New York, Feb. 26.—The Herald of this morning says the latest advices from London are that the pirate rans had put into the Spanish port of Ferrol, having met with considerable damage in the Bay of Biscay after leaving the French coast. She was considered a failure. The U. S. steamer Albatross and a French steamer had gone to intercept her. The new rebel pirate Ajazz sailed from England several weeks ago, and three others would shortly sail, one of which was named the Heracles and was on the Clyde and about ready.

FROM WASHINGTON.

New York, Feb. 27.—The Times Washington special says Mr. Washburne, Member of Congress from Illinois, received Saturday a letter from Gen. Grant in which he comments upon Gen. Sherman's movements in a confident vein. He says a few days of successes will place the rebels in a position from which they cannot escape.

FROM NEW ORLEANS.

New York, Feb. 26.—The steamer Evening Star from New Orleans, has arrived. The papers contain no military news other than the quiet progress of the draft.

New York, Feb. 27.—Advises from New Orleans state that Kirby Smith's army still refuses to cross to the east side of the Mississippi river. Two attempts to remove the men were made and it is thought a third attempt will result in open mutiny. All the union prisoners at Camp Ford, Texas, have been exchanged.

FROM FORT MONROE.

Fort Monroe, Feb. 24.—The flag of truce steamer New York, arrived last evening from Point Lookout, Maryland, with 770 rebel prisoners, and left here to-day for Varionna, where the exchange of prisoners on both sides is progressing rapidly. A heavy northeast storm set in here last evening and cold damp weather has prevailed all day.

FROM CINCINNATI.

Cincinnati, Feb. 27.—The cause of the fire in the Enquirer building yesterday is not ascertained, the loss will probably reach $40,000.

Cincinnati, Feb. 26.—The fire this morning destroyed the composing rooms of the Enquirer office. The paper will be issued as usual.

FROM HAVANA.

New York, Feb. 27.—By the arrival of the steamer Havana we have Havana dates to the 23d. There was no news from Mexico. Arzobispo has received his sentence which is three years in a prison chain gang.

FROM KENTUCKY.

Louisville, Feb. 26.—The Vice-President elect arrived here this evening. The Chattanooga Gazette of the 23d, says Bridgeport was almost totally destroyed by fire last Tuesday night.

FROM PHILADELPHIA.

Philadelphia, Feb. 25.—Jay Cooke reports his sales of 7-30's on Saturday as over $9,000,000. The total amount for the week is $27,000,000, leaving unsold about $120,000,000.

FROM MISSOURI.

St. Louis, Feb. 26.—The bill of rights adopted by a convention in committee of the whole was rejected on the final vote before the convention and a substitute introduced.

FROM CHARLESTON.

New York, Feb. 27.—The steamship Memphis which left Charleston on the 21st reports that the national flag was flying over the city and all the forts in the harbor. Gen. Gilmore's headquarters were established in the city. The forts which remain in good condition are of the most formidable character. Two hundred pieces of artillery, spiked but not otherwise injured, fell into the hands of the national forces. About six thousand bags of cotton were burned by the rebels before they left, but it is believed that large quantities of it and also of tobacco are concealed in the houses.

Just before the national corps entered the city the rebel rear guard were busy in plundering the houses. None, but the poor inhabitants remained in the city after its abandonment, the wealthy leaving it before or with the rebel army.

The new blockade running steamer Deer with a cargo of liquors was captured in the harbor on the night of the 18th, while running up toward the city, being ignorant of the change in affairs there.

It is said that the garrison from the forts and crews of the rebel boats in Charleston harbor were sent to Wilmington, N. C.

FROM THE SOUTH.

New York, Feb. 27.—The Richmond papers are brimful of news, concerning Sherman's movements or whereabouts. They are very confident in tone and appear confident in their purposes of his overwhelming defeat. They say his doom may be looked upon as sealed.

New York, Feb. 26.—A letter published in Richmond from Gen. Lee, says among the negroes is not only expedient, but necessary, as he does not think the white population can supply the necessities of a long war.

New York, February 27th.—The Raleigh Confederate says the people of Wilmington have 15,000 bales of cotton hidden away awaiting the arrival of the federal forces.

FROM WILMINGTON.

U. S. 7-30 LOAN.

By authority of the Secretary of the Treasury, the undersigned has assumed the General Subscription Agency for the sale of United States Treasury Notes, bearing seven and three tenths per cent. interest, per annum, known as the

SEVEN-THIRTY LOAN.

These Notes are issued under date of August 10th, 1864, and are payable in three years from that date, in currency, or are convertible at the option of the holder into

U. S. 5-20 Six per cent.

These bonds are new worth a premium of nine per cent., including gold interest from Nov. 1st, which makes the actual profit on the 7-30 loan, at current rates, including interest, about ten per cent. per annum, besides its exemption from State and municipal taxation, which adds from one to three per cent. more, according to the rate levied on other property. The interest is payable semi-annually by coupons attached to each note, which may be cut off and sent to any bank or banker.

now offered by the Government, and it is confidently expected that its superior advantages will make it the Great Popular Loan of the People.

Less than $200,000,000 remain unsold, which will probably be disposed of within the next 60 or 90 days, when the notes will undoubtedly command a premium, as has uniformly been the case on closing the subscriptions to other loans.

In order that citizens of every town and section of the country may be afforded facilities for taking the loan, the National Banks, State Banks, and Private Banks throughout the country have generally agreed to receive subscriptions at par. Subscribers will select their own agents, in whom they have confidence, and who only are to be responsible for the delivery of the notes for which they receive orders.

Legislative Correspondence.

From Our Special Correspondent.
JANESVILLE, Feb. 18, 1865.
The Gazette has been the editorial correspondent of the Gazette, I see that a readable and graphic description of the Assembly debate on the ratification of the Constitutional Amendment, is given to the speech of Mr. Thomas. He was followed on the same side by Messrs. Barden, Reed, Taylor, Palmer and Hadley, after which, when nearly six o'clock p. m., on the 24th inst., and amidst general impatience, the previous question was called for and ordered, and after a call of the House was had, and further proceedings under suspended, the question being concurred in the Senate resolution ratifying the Constitutional Amendment, was put with the following result: six Democrats voting affirmatively and ten Democrats and two Union men being absent. Mr. Starks, one of the Union men, was summoned away just before the vote to attend the death-bed of his dying son, from a wound received while serving his country, but before going, earnestly told one of the members that he wanted the privilege of leaving his vote recorded in the affirmative. A motion was made to record this privilege to Mr. Starks; but objection being made, the motion was not received. The vote shows 72 yeas, 16 noes and 12 absentees. Democrats in italics.

Yeas—Messrs. Babcock, Burden, Berry, Boyce, Brewster, Brayton, Brinkerhoff, Burgess, Cady, Carr, Cassaday, Church, Cobb, Colladay, DeWitt, Davis, Thomas, Davis, Dewhurst, Doud, Dunsmuir, Eaton, Ennis, Fay, Forsyth, Fowler, Eddy, Fulton, Gilbert, Green, Groves, Hadley, Hand, Horne, Johnson, Judd, King, Knapp, Little, McLaughlin, Bland, Moore, Owen, Palmer, Rice, Rogers, Ross, Salisbury, Sawyer, Van Simons, Van Simons, Slade, Spoor, Stearns, Tarr, Taylor, Tilton, Thomas, Thompson, Utz, Van Ostrand, Vaughan, Wingo, Whipple, Williams, Winsor, Wootter and Mr. Speaker Field—72.

Noes—Messrs. Duggan, Delaney, Ford, Greenough, Goodrich, Lacey, McLean, Murphy, Packer, Piper, Walker, Wedel, and White—16.

Absent—Messrs. Bonnell, Boyd, Frankenburg, Harlow, Knab, Loomis, McGrath, Mulholland, Ryan, Starks, Weaver.

While the affirmative votes were given audibly and proudly, those in the negative were given in a low, spiritless tone, the vote of the "irrepressible" Jones excepted, he managing to express a clear "no," which made the faint "noes" of his colleagues more conspicuous. He had also heart enough to get one of his erring brethren who had voted "aye" under a mainly patriotic impulse, to vote "no," giving the reason that the "aye" vote was given under the impression that it was on the "previous question." The member thus rashly brought to vote directly for human bondage was a quiet German, who will undoubtedly live to curse the unlucky moment that the "irrepressible" Jones caught him voting for him.

The announcement of the gratifying result was greeted with warm and general applause, lasting for several moments.

We hear that one of the Democratic subscribers was sorely puzzled in his mind about his vote on this question. An old political hack of the young member's district, who, some years back flourished in the Legislative halls and in the chairs of Democratic conventions, in the glory of a florid face, red moustache, buff waistcoat and dark blue coat with brass buttons, pressed the young member, with whom he had unsuccessfully competed for the Assembly, to vote in the affirmative, assuring him that it was a strict party question. Not being satisfied with the young member's response to his pressure, he addressed him by letter published in the Milwaukee News, therein giving the usual party reasons that in his opinion should induce the young member to sacrifice the welfare of his country and his own future peace of mind, on the altar of slavery. Opposed to the degenerate reasonings and persuasions of this old and nearly worn out tempter, the young member had the benefit of those of a guardian angel, in the person of a young and loving wife, who, appealing to his better nature, thought that the future character and standing of his children depended on his voting against slavery. As we well imagine the young member's feelings, beset by the cant of a party hack and the judgment of a thoughtful wife, and am happy to regard his avowal as a sign of her triumph. On his return, if he has to vote on the question, I expect an affirmative response, and meanwhile watch his course, as several others do, with the keen anxiety that such an interesting case must generally excite.

The six in the Senate and sixteen in the Assembly who have voted for slavery, may outlive the obliquity of their vote, but I doubt it. I feel that before many months their consciences will repudiate their vote, and when the nation, freed from the incubus of slavery, expands with wealth and liberty, their position of chains and slavery will be the dark spot on the surrounding brightness. But it behooves me to think that they may live to repent of their vote, and carefully feeling that the voice of the people terminating slavery, was indeed the voice of God, be able to walk erect and smiling among their congratulating friends.

Now that this important business is disposed of, the members will have time and inclination to give some attention to the land grant. Several have for some time past been actively engaged in operating on this measure, and they will now be largely joined by those anxious to know "what's what." Delegations from Milwaukee and adjacent counties have been doing all the figuring so far, and from what I know I can positively state that their interests are well ahead. This fact has been known to the "Central Wisconsin" and "Portage" operators who will, I understand, enter the field next week prepared for an active and successful campaign.

In the Senate on Friday, Senators Blair, J. A. Chandler and Budlong got leave to record their votes on the Constitutional Amendment, the two first voting "aye" and the last "no," making the total Senate vote 27 yeas to 6 noes.
The bill to change the State Bank of Wisconsin to a National Banking Association was, after considerable discussion, passed. The bill providing for the establishment of a State Normal School was passed, and the Senate after discussion refused to suspend the rules on the passage of the Assembly bill authorizing the Governor to take the opinion of the Supreme Court in certain cases, and referred it to the Judiciary Committee.
On Saturday, in both houses, the chief business was the passage of several local bills and considering bills in Committee of the whole.
The 47th regiment did not leave today, owing to a lack of transportation from Chicago, but will probably leave on Monday.
The 52d regiment is organized, Quintermaster Webb, of the 37th regiment, well known as an active and experienced legislator, being Colonel.
The late victories and the number of gallant men rushing to the ranks, make gay times all over. For the advantages we get, make us truly thankful, is the heartfelt prayer of your
YANKEE TRUSTEE.

Letter from the Federal Capital.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25, 1865.
Editorial Gazette.—Three years ago today Jefferson Davis was inaugurated President of the Southern Confederacy for the full term of six years, he having previously served as the head of the Provisional Government of Rebelkind for a little over one year. The prospects are now very fair for the belief that he is another year, his power as will be struggling with Satan in the effort to drive him from his stronghold or else a fugitive and a wanderer on the face of the earth.

The end is fast hastening, the rebellion is rapidly drawing to a close, and on the fourth of July next the people of this country will be able to celebrate the anniversary of the nation's birth in peace and with the consciousness and knowledge that the Union is restored and saved.

Last November, after the gallant Sherman had swung loose from Atlanta, Gen. Grant while in New York was interrogated as to the prospects of a close of the war, and he replied that he was no windy day prophet, but that six months would show great results, that the Confederacy was a mere shell, that Gen. Sherman would demonstrate that fact by marching where he pleased, he once having broken through the outer crust or rim of the Confederacy.

Three of these six months have passed away and great events have certainly transpired. Sherman has crossed Georgia and captured Savannah and Thomas has almost annihilated Hood's army. After a brief rest at Savannah, the invincible legions of Sherman are again in motion on the soil of South Carolina, the home of secession. Swamps are traversed, rivers are crossed, railroads are destroyed, Branchville and Columbia are captured, Augusta is isolated, and Charleston evacuated, though the main body of our army was 100 miles distant from it. South Carolina, the home of chivalry and secession, is in the invader's power, and all supplies from not only that State, but from Georgia, Florida, Alabama and Mississippi, are cut off from Richmond and Lee's army.

These are sure signs of a final victory in these three months, and thus all foreign supplies are cut off. What an eventful three months these have been. Since the first of May last, great battles have been fought and the whole period is rich with important and crowning victories. It is a period in the annals of war that will be studied by military men for ages to come, and millions upon millions of men yet unborn, will as they read the pages of the history that register the events of that period, dream of Grant, Sherman, Sheridan, Thomas, Terry, Farragut and Foster as military and naval giants—demigods, whose achievements will far outshine the victories and achievements of Napoleon, Wellington, Hannibal, Caesar, or any of the heroes of ancient times.

Yet, unimportant as the past year has been in crowning events and victories, all pales in the light of the events of the past three months. How much more of this can the rebel leaders stand? How much longer will Davis and his crew be able to defiantly and insolently reject the proffers of peace on the basis of freedom to all men and an indivisible Union? The remaining three months of Gen. Grant's allotted time will solve this question. March, April and May complete the six months. Mr. Davis is absolutely rejected. Mr. Lincoln's profifers of peace, and recent events clearly show that his sole object in sending Stephens & Co. to negotiate, was that he might have an opportunity to reject the offers made, and then by an appeal to the Southern passion, fire it, and rouse and unite the people to a new effort. He has failed. The bombastic addresses at Richmond are answered by clamors for peace from the captive press of the South, outside of Richmond.
The last trails of the dying Charleston Mercury were impressions on Jeff Davis and the Richmond crew, and a well informed half of the people for submission and peace. The Mobile Tribune says: the planters, great and small, desire peace and protection to person and property, and are ready for reconstruction on any terms. The Mobile Advertiser says the people of the South are cowed and their courage and spirit are gone. (Poor suppliant, whipped crew how they whine and rave!) The Augusta Chronicle advises the people to resist the destruction of their cotton, and says that the Government should protect and not destroy property, whereupon the Richmond Examiner calls it a Yankee paper. The Raleigh Progress demands of the Davis Government to take away their bayonets and submit the question of a convention to the people—aye, it dares them to do it, and tells the Legislature that Sherman is coming, will be there in sixty days; that he is coming to stay, and that they with Gov. Vance will "run" while the people will stay and do as the people of Savannah have done. The Raleigh Standard is, equally, bold and outspoken; while the "Wig," an old and influential paper, curses Davis terribly, tells the people, "he is the author of all their woes, and that he cares no more for them than for Massachusetts or Mexico, and says give us peace on any terms, with or without slavery; honorable or dishonorable, anything to save us from the irretrievable ruin now upon us."

How long in the face of all these things, with the "leading" presses of the South outside of Richmond calling for peace, Union, slavery or no slavery, can Davis stand out? Not long. All resources cut off; North Carolina with open arms praying for Sherman to come and deliver them from their oppressors, and he is coming. Aye before this is read by the readers of the Gazette, the great flanker will be well into the State along the line of the Danville road, while another column of his army will push northward from Florence, and though over one hundred miles away from Wilmington, they will switch the rebels out of that place as easily as they did out of Charleston.

CUTANEA.

A SPECIFIC, SAFE, AND SURE CURE FOR THE ITCH—For sale by Druggists and Dealers generally. CUTANEA is a liquid preparation, holding in solution a large percentage of the Proto-Sulphate of Oculinum. It has been carefully tested by some of the most prominent and reliable members of the Medical Profession, who have examined our formula, and adopted it in their practice. It is free from the objectionable odor of the use of antiseptic and other mercurial preparations, and acts directly and promptly upon the cause of the disease. A single application, properly made, is sufficient to effect a complete cure. Full directions accompanying each package. Prepared by A. PALMER & SON, Druggists and Chemists, Janesville, Wis.
J. B. JOHNSON.

The New York Tribune says, "The reason why Drake's Plantation Bitters are so universally used and have such an immense sale, is that they are always made up to the original standard, of highly investigating material and of pure quality, although the price is so low. Drake's Plantation Bitters are not only made of pure material, but the people are told what it is. The Recipe is published around each bottle, and the bottles are not reduced in size. At least twenty imitations of counterfeit have appeared, and they improve upon the people's eyes and taste the last of them."
The Plantation Bitters are now used in all the Government Hospitals, are recommended by the best physicians, and are warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. Facts are stubborn things.
I have used them for years, for I truly believe the Plantation Bitters have cured my wife.

SALE OF FORFEITED MORTGAGES

Notice is hereby given that the following described lands, having been granted and become the property of the State of Wisconsin, of the non-payment of taxes on lands granted thereon, will be offered in sale at public auction, at the office of the Secretary of State at the Capitol in Madison, on the 26th day of March, A. D. 1876, (unless previously sold by the state at the place at which they are now held), said sale to commence at ten o'clock a. m., and continue from day to day until all said lands shall have been so offered. The valuation price at which said lands will be offered will be the Declared value of each tract under the heading "Appraised Value," and the amount of which the lands have been appraised, by appraisers appointed by the State, for the purpose of ascertaining the value of the land, to which will be added the taxes which were due at the time of forfeiture. Two or more tracts of land may be sold together, if it is deemed best for the interests of the State.
 All land will be sold subject to all legal taxes due thereon. The balance of any tax yet unpaid on any such purchase money will be required to be paid at the time of purchase, and a credit of ten years will be given for the balance of the tax.
 All lands not sold at public sale will thereafter be subject to private entry by any person applying for the same.
 Other conditions will be made known at the sale.
 LUCIUS FAIRCHILD,
 Secretary of State.
 W. VINCENT SMITH,
 Commissioner of School and University Lands.

Auction Sale.—Our readers will bear in mind the auction sale of household furniture, provisions, wagons, sleighs, harnesses, etc., to take place at the residence of the late Mr. E. R. Doe. The handsome residence will also be offered at auction at the same time.

Burglary.—The store of Davis Brothers, on West Milwaukee street, was entered on Saturday night, and goods valued at about $200 stolen. Entrance to the store was effected by taking out the window in the rear of the store. There was no discrimination shown in the choice of goods, and we presume suspicion will turn in the right direction to insure the arrest of the depredators.

Second Ward, No. 11.—The draft commencing to-day, an arrangement has been made to furnish each drafted man, from those having paid in full to the fund with a substitute from those already enlisted, and leaving those drafted from the number not having substituted to be paid their full subscription to the fund.

Contract the Records.—If any one will take the trouble to examine the records at the office of the Register of Deeds, he will find the title to a great deal of real property, particularly in the country, lamentably defective. This no doubt arises from the fact that many persons seem to think that a deed in their own possession is as safe and effective as though duly recorded. But such is by no means the case, as will be seen by the following section 25 of chapter 86 of the Revised Statutes bearing upon the subject.

Every conveyance of real estate within this State heretofore made, which shall not be recorded as provided by law, shall be void as against any subsequent purchaser in good faith and for a valuable consideration of the same real estate or any portion thereof whose conveyance shall first be duly recorded.

The Draft.—The wheel of destiny is in motion at the Provost Marshal's office, and soldiers are being turned out at the rate of about two per minute. We give below the result of the draft in the various towns that were drawn this morning. It will be seen that the 7th Ward of Watertown had not more than one on the enrollment list to fill the quota demanded, having eight enrolled men, and sixteen being needed. The town of Lewiston, in Columbia county, needed sixteen men and had just sixteen enrolled men. The chances for a prize in these instances, it will be seen, were brilliant.

Town of York.—50 tickets to be drawn. Alvin Weber, Eli Call, Wm. Hoffman, John Bedford, Warren Ramsey, Thos. Cripps, Michael Frank, Wm. Newman, A. B. Goodrich, A. M. Oatman, J. H. Sherman, Johannes Forrester, Erastus L. Parker, Jas. D. Wm. John Clelland, Jacob Snye, Wm. Grubb, Erastus Vanousbeck, O. A. Robbins, Chas. Capps, Jas. Phillips, Geo. E. Frederic, Henry Gould, D. B. Innes, Wm. H. Cole, Geo. Lilly, J. Powell Redfield, Carlor Rowson, Olin Wigham.

Emmons, Peter Williamson.—Thos. Harris, Andrew Patterson, Thos. Welch, Abraham McPherson, George F. McIntyre, J. W. Cusick, J. Bailey, John Dowd, Eli Johnson, O. Tammanson, L. M. Douglass, Andrew Larsley, Daniel Tramor, Humphrey Connors, O. Forton.

Seventh Ward, Watertown.—50 tickets, 16 to be drawn. Thos. Harris, Andrew Patterson, Thos. Welch, Abraham McPherson, George F. McIntyre, J. W. Cusick, J. Bailey, John Dowd, Eli Johnson, O. Tammanson, L. M. Douglass, Andrew Larsley, Daniel Tramor, Humphrey Connors, O. Forton.

Judicial District Convention.
We understand that there is a strong desire in many portions of this District, for a Judicial District Convention to nominate a candidate for Circuit Judge. Well then, let us have a Convention, as that will tell the matter as to whom the people desire to elect. If they desire the re-election of Judge Noggle, well and good; but if there is to be a new man elected, we wish to hear that no man in the District is better qualified for the position than Major R. H. Harkness.

Reserve Horse.—I have a valuable mare, of very high spirits. Last fall she began to be restless about starting, so much so that it was dangerous to drive her single. She was impatient to start, and if held in, would rear, and pitch about, sometimes throwing herself down. Finding the matter becoming serious, I undertook to cure her, and succeeded perfectly. The mare is now as good as new. Let the driver have the entire charge of her, and take pains, by gentle usage and kindness to her on good terms with her. Wm. himself, talking to her, and leading her during the necessary time, and she will be as good as new, and stand without holding, if possible, till everything is in the buggy by yourself. Now, holding the lines, step back a pace or two. She will probably start; if she does, pull her up without a jerk; speak kindly to her as soon as she is still, and she will be as good as new. Repeat the process until she is well enough to stand still, and take that time to get in. Now if you order her to start, she will probably make more trouble; wait, therefore, till she is ready, (you can tell by watching her ears,) then give her the word and let her go. By pursuing this plan for a few weeks, a radical cure may be effected; this, at least, is my experience. One very important point is, never, on any account, use any severity with a horse of that disposition; it can never do any good, and is almost sure to do hurt. It should be remembered that while it is never necessary to give up to a horse, it is often very advisable to humor him. —Gentle Farmer.

Our Next Circuit Judge.—We publish this week, a lengthy call, by members of the bar and others interested, on Hon. David Noggle to again become a candidate for the office which he has filled for something more than six years with so much credit to himself and so greatly to the advantage of the people of this circuit. We do not suppose there will be any other candidate in the field; but if there should be, the eminent fitness of Judge Noggle for the performance of the responsible and laborious duties which devolve upon him will secure his election by such a vote as this Judicial Circuit alone is capable of giving. —Waterbury Register.

THE GRAND GIFT CONCERT.—It will not have escaped the attention of our readers that Prof. Balch, of Milwaukee, gives a grand concert in Milwaukee on the 22d of March, at which a large number of rich and valuable prizes are to be distributed. The gentlemen engaged with the Professor in this enterprise are substantial and reliable business men, who in the management of a similar entertainment for the past three years have made it a complete success. Dag. King, at the Post Office, is the agent for the sale of tickets in this city and vicinity.

DISPEPSIA, NERVOUSNESS, AND DEBILITY.
DR. STRICKLAND'S TONIC.—We can recommend those suffering with Loss of Appetite, Indigestion, or Dyspepsia, Nervousness and Nervous Debility, to Strickland's Tonic. It is a vegetable preparation, free from alcoholic liquors; it strengthens the whole nervous system; it creates a good appetite, and is warranted to cure Dyspepsia and Nervous Debility.

How to Fall asleep.

The great point to be gained in order to secure sleep is to escape from thought, especially from clinging, imperious thought, which, in most cases, is the cause of sleeplessness. The following simple method will turn your eyes as far to the right or left, or upward or downward, as I can without pain, and then commence rolling them slowly, with that divergence from a direct line of vision, around in their sockets, and continue doing this until I fall asleep, which occurs generally within three minutes—always within five minutes at the most. The immediate effect of this procedure differs from that of any other that I have tried to procure sleep. It not merely directs thought into a new channel, but actually escapes it. Since I became aware of this I have never again, innumerable times, while thus rolling my eyes, to think upon a particular subject, and even upon that which before kept me awake but I could not.

As long as we were moving around my mind was blank. If any one doubts this, let him try the experiment for himself. I wish he would; let him pause just here and make it. I venture to assure him that if he makes it in good faith, in the manner described, the promise of a "pony" for his thoughts, for each of them while the operation is in progress, will add very little to his wealth.—Such being its effect, we cannot but wonder that it should bring sleep to a nervous and wakeful man at night.

The philosophy of the matter is very simple. A suspension of thought is to the mind what a suspension of travel is to the body. It enjoys the luxury of rest; the strain upon its faculties is removed; it falls asleep as naturally as the farmer in his chair after toiling all day in the fields.
